

Support for all of Illinois' Kids

We believe that all kids deserve a quality education. That is why we propose solutions that benefit schools and families throughout the state. For example, donations to public schools, foundations, and non-profit organizations as well as donations to scholarship organizations will be divided among the five appellate court districts, and determined by public or private school enrollment. At the same time, the funds for improving public schools infrastructure will be available statewide.

